

POST-ITS Using Post-its to Facilitate Individual and Group Input

POST-ITS: The use of post-its encourages individual input and can enhance group collaboration. The POST-ITS acronym is designed to facilitate the wise use of post-its.

Pose a relevant issue or question

Organize flipchart – provide post-its

Submit ideas – on separate post-its

Take time to review post-its

Identify key themes – categorize post-its

Thank people for their contributions

Summarize key findings

Note: Further information on the above acronym can be found within the current website or it will be added in the future as the website is developed.